

You Don't Go to Church!

Would you agree that church could become a pressure?

Has the word 'church' recalled any photographic memories for you?

When it comes to relationships, are you more Rook than Crow?

What do you think about social action, being a part of the church?

What do you think church, as a community, should look like?

